Bob:

This is a heads up from Dick Kerr and me.

As you are aware we have for several years been attempting to get DIA to gear up to accept and handle SAFE. I personally met with Bob Little of DIA and organized briefings and training sessions for DIA while Director, OIT. But they couldn't or wouldn't fill their ADP positions of which they said they had about 50. Now SAFE Delivery-3 has been put in place at DIA this past week and is being tested. They aren't ready! They don't have the trained ADP team we have urged them to build.

Apparently DIA is facing a personnel cut in FY 88. We anticipate General Perroots will telephone you in the next several weeks--as the magnitude of the test of handling SAFE Delivery 3 hits home--and seek assistance, perhaps saying DIA is taking personnel cuts, etc. He may also ask for more money from CIA--beyond the $2 million we are prepared to contribute--which would come out of the DI. His need for personnel in the ADP arena might be as great as 50.
